

Doug was born in a small town outside of Detroit, MI. Doug always had a love for fishing. At a very early age, Doug and his dad would frequent the upper peninsula of Michigan where they, along with his grandfather, would spend much of their free time shore fishing the banks of Lake Superior. As a kid, Doug would fish any body of water he could walk to, this included lakes, streams and any pond he could find. In 1981, after graduating from Southfield High School, Doug decided to follow his dreams and move to GA. Doug attended school at Devry Institute of Technology where he earned is degree in electronics. In 1996 Doug married his wife Paige and have been happily married for 22 years. Doug has 3 children and one grandchild.
