

Nathan grew up in the Lower peninsula of Michigan, and began his fishing career when he started walking, fishing for walleye in Lake Huron. He earned a bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering, and Land Surveying from Ferris State University in Big Rapids, MI. Nathan moved to the Atlanta area 2015, and has been chasing, and learning how to catch Striped bass ever since.

Nathan enjoys many different outdoor activities including; hunting, fishing, and trapping. Married to his wife Teleatha for 11 years, they live together on the South end of the lake with their son Jonah, and their two dogs Buck and Carly.

