

Tom was raised in Pittsburgh, PA and realized he had a passion for fishing at an early age. Earned a degree from Colorado State University and enjoyed the west for about 16 years fishing Flaming Gorge, The Green and Big Horn Rivers. Relocated to Atlanta in 1991 after 4 years in California-great salt water fishing and expensive real estate. In 2003 started selling real estate...

Tom is an avid outdoorsman who enjoys fishing, hunting, skiing, and life on Lake Lanier. Married to Vicki his wife of 20 years and his yellow Labrador Posey are great companions. See you on the water!
